Catholic but lost touch?

Welcome

www.effinghamandfetcham.org.uk

People stop coming for different reasons

"I never really started because no-one in my family came"

"I stopped going to Mass in my teenage years because Mass seemed boring or irrelevant"

"I was deeply hurt when no-one came to visit me after my husband died"

"When I went to church, no-one spoke to me. I felt I didn't belong"

"My marriage broke up and I am in a new relationship"

"I disagree with the Church's teaching on contraception, sex outside marriage, homosexuality and married/ women priests"

"I had an abortion so I can never be welcomed back"

We are...

A group of ordinary fragile and imperfect Catholics trying hard to be a true family where everyone is welcome

We have often got it wrong in the past and we are sorry for that.

If you would like to give it a try, we can explore this together

- We can meet for coffee or visit you at home
- We can find you a mentor
- We can send some information
- You can come to a few small lay led meetings where you can ask your questions without any commitments
- You would be welcome at church
