1st Sunday of Advent

Sundays: Cycle C    Weekdays: Year II    28 November 2021

I don't know about you, but I always think there's something lovely about Advent: a sense of entering into something wonderful and filled with new hope. When I was a child, I think it was mainly looking forward to Christmas, but as we get older I think we appreciate Advent more and more for its own sake. It speaks of the nearness of the Lord to us and of our waiting and longing for Him. It reflects the reality of our prayers—quietly and confidently longing to see the Lord's face and experience His love. It reflects the reality of our hopes for the world—yearning and thirsting for Jesus' kingdom to come in justice and peace. That longing speaks of the reality of our love for the Lord, and our need of Him. It is sometimes said that "We are an Easter people, and Alleluia (praise the Lord) is our song"—and that is perfectly true; but I think it's at least as true—and maybe even truer—to say "We are an Advent people, and Maranatha (come Lord Jesus) is our song."

As we enter again into this hope-filled season, what will we bring to the Lord? What experiences from the last twelve months will shape our Advent—what joys or sufferings, hopes, regrets and thanksgivings? What do we want or need to bring to the Lord in Reconciliation? How can we meet Him more fully in the Eucharist? Where do we hope and pray to find Him coming into our world and our hearts in 2022?

May God bless you all,

Fr Stephen
