The Most Holy Trinity

Sundays: Cycle C    Weekdays: Year II    12 June 2022

God is supreme in everything: supreme in power, supreme in knowledge, supreme in love. So is He supreme in riches—or supreme in poverty—or both? Both, I think. And that is the mystery of the Trinity.

God the Father has everything—He is supremely rich—and He gives everything away to His Son, as Jesus says in today's Gospel: "Everything the Father has is mine." And the Son, having received everything from the Father, gives it all away to the Holy Spirit: "The Spirit of truth ... will lead you into the complete truth ... all he tells you will be taken from what is mine." What it is to be the Trinitarian God, is to have everything, and to give it all away in love—absolute riches and perfect poverty.

And we are caught up in this mystery. The Father gives us everything: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." (John 3:16) So does the Son: "I call you friends because I have made known to you everything I have learned from my Father." (John 15:15) And so does the Holy Spirit: "He will lead you into the complete truth." And we are called to give everything back to God, which is the deepest meaning of worship, and makes us most fully like the God we love. The same dynamic of total self-giving and receiving is found in the mystery of the Cross and Resurrection of Jesus, and, of course, in the Eucharist—for the Eucharist is both the supreme self-giving of Jesus and our supreme act of worship.

May God Bless you,

Fr Stephen

This year we combine our annual parish event with the World Meeting of Families. WMOF, which happens every three years, was created by Pope St John Paul II to celebrate all the wonder of family life. To learn more: Programme#WMOF22\(romefamily2022.com\) Our celebration will be held at St Alphege Hall and garden from around 1pm, with some great activities for children, prayer stations, music, picnic, and hopefully joining Pope Francis on the live-stream for a joint prayer. The day will be preceded by prayers for our parish families and intercessory prayer cards will be available for collection a few weeks before the event. As a family in Christ let us all gather to celebrate the joy, love, and glory that is the vocation of family life. For more information, please contact Kamila Smith on 075407 25233.
